2 THE CLERK: Civil 14-69JMS-RLP, Vincent Khoury Tylor
3 versus Marriott International, Inc. This case is called for 4 Plaintiff's Motion to Defer or Deny Defendant's Motion for 5 Partial Summary Judgment.

6 Counsel, your appearances for the record, please?

7 MR. STREET: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Steven 8 Street, Paul Maki and Dane Anderson for the plaintiffs.

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MR. MELCHINGER: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Glenn 11 Melchinger and Louise Ing on behalf of the defendant.

12 THE COURT: All right, yes, thank you.

13 All right, Mr. Street, do you have anything to add to 14 your moving papers?

15 MR. STREET: Well, Your Honor, we'd at least like to 16 address some of the things that were said in Mr. --

17 THE COURT: All right. Fair enough.

18 MR. STREET: -- Melchinger's affidavit.

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MR. STREET: Fundamentally the declaration left out a 21 really important part of our discussions, and that was the 22 commitment on their part that when we reached an impasse in 23 settlement discussions, which I guess we did by August 15th, 24 that they would stipulate for leave to bring in who they 25 claimed was the real party in interest, the franchisee. And

1 our discussions from that point forward were continuing to 2 stall on his part as to whether they were going to stipulate to 3 it or make me file a motion for leave to bring them in.

4 And the discovery that we wanted to do waited on that 5 party being part of the case because they continually said they 6 couldn't get information out of their franchisee and they had 7 been stymied along the way in getting this information and that 8 we were going to need to bring them in as a formal party in the 9 case before we initiated discovery.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

11 MR. STREET: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Do you have anything to add?

13 MR. MELCHINGER: I would say in response to that, that 14 I do not particularly recall having a specific objection to, 15 and also -- let me start this way: There was a point at which 16 we specifically had a conversation and I said that I was not 17 able to get a specific response, and that may have been around 18 mid-August. And certainly Mr. Street, if he needed to go ahead 19 and do whatever he needed to do, should do that.

20 But none of that changes the fact that the elements 21 that plaintiffs have put forth in their declaration as part of 22 a 56(d) motion do not contain anything that's central to 23 resolving the Motion for Summary Judgment. So...

24 THE COURT: All right. All right. Thank you.

25 All right. I am going to grant the motion. The

1 reality is I think for me to reach the same conclusion that 2 Marriott reaches would require me to essentially be ready to 3 rule on the motion now and I'm just not going to do that and I 4 can't do that. I think, you know, the standard is lower 5 than -- than Marriott would have me apply here, especially when 6 there's been no discovery at all. So I am going to permit some 7 discovery to go forward. And so what we need to talk about now 8 is sort of timing and what that would do to Marriott's motion.
9 You know, if you want to just leave it as is or withdraw it, 10 obviously without prejudice and then you could refile by just a 11 single page saying you're essentially refiling and 12 incorporating those document numbers, or you can add something 13 new if you think that might be relevant after that discovery 14 period, which, you know, may be the case that you feel you want 15 to add something in that you didn't have before.

16 So I think the best thing is to withdraw it without 17 prejudice. We'll talk about a schedule and set a full briefing 18 schedule then as well as try to do an expedited discovery 19 schedule.

20 MR. MELCHINGER: I understand.

21 THE COURT: Does that sound agreeable or would you 22 rather leave your motion as is?

23 MR. MELCHINGER: I will have to confer with my 24 co-counsel on whether they want to add or do anything else in 25 response. I think the motion is a very narrow legal issue and 1       probably does not need much more, if anything.

2                   So, if the Court is suggesting that we should withdraw 3       it or --

4                   THE COURT: Well, I can deem it moot. I can deem it
5       withdrawn without you agreeing to it at this point in time. I 6       mean, it's sort of form over substance in some way because what 7       I'd do is give you an option of either a one-page statement 8       saying we're reaffirming the motion, in which case it's no work 9       on your part other than, you know, that one sheet.

10                  MR. MELCHINGER: Right.

11                  THE COURT: Or you could refile if you think some new 12       things should be added. What I don't want is some sort of, you 13       know, we want to add these facts to the previous motion. If 14       you want to add something by way of argument or facts based on 15       the discovery that is done, then you file an entirely new 16       motion.

17                  MR. MELCHINGER: In that sense -- I'm sorry, I don't 18       want to --

19                  THE COURT: But if you're happy to stand on what 20       you've done, then you can just file a statement essentially of 21       refiling docket number 37 -- I'm sorry, whatever the docket 22       number is, not 37 -- and all of the concise statements, so 23       forth, that goes with it.

24                  MR. MELCHINGER: I understand. If I might ask -- 25       excuse me -- for point of clarification, is the Court allowing

1 then all this discovery to go forward or is that something that 2 we have to work out as we go --

3 THE COURT: Yeah, I mean I'm not -- that's the next 4 question I have, is what discovery is necessary. And I don't 5 know if you folks can reach agreement or not, but the question 6 would be what discovery is necessary to get to the summary
7 judgment motion. Because that's what this is about. This is a 8 56(d) motion. So the discovery that would be permitted is the 9 discovery that's been set forth that's relevant in the 10 plaintiff's view to putting forth a meaningful opposition to 11 the summary judgment motion. So, do you have a time frame in 12 mind, Mr. Street, at this point?

13 MR. STREET: Well, my -- my time frame was to have at 14 least 4 months. I mean given the time that the -- you know, 15 given the fact that the holidays are coming up and so forth, 16 and I'm anticipating having trouble deposing some of the 17 witnesses and so forth that we might need to depose during that 18 period of time.

19 MR. MELCHINGER: I'm not sure 4 months for what 20 exactly? The only pending request right now are Rule 34
21 requests against Marriott in docket number 38 filed the other 22 day, was an opposition to a Motion to Amend.

23 THE COURT: Let me ask you this: When do you have the 24 hearing before the magistrate judge on the Motion to Amend?

25 MR. STREET: It's a non-hearing motion. They filed

1       their opposition yesterday.

2            MR. MELCHINGER: Yesterday.

3            MR. STREET: And we have an opportunity to file a 4        reply within 14 days.

5            THE COURT: Okay. All right.

6            MR. STREET: We may be able to file it earlier than 7        that. But --

8            THE COURT: Let me say two things to help you to the 9        extent I can. I'm not sure we're going to have firm resolution 10       of this.

11           One, my view is Mr. Street has filed a motion under 12        Rule 56(d) saying I need X discovery. My view is the discovery 13        shouldn't be broader than that. I mean you set forth what you 14        need to oppose the Motion for Summary Judgment. So this isn't 15        just opening up to any discovery. For purposes of this motion 16        at least it's not that, to get this motion on track.

17           Exactly what form that would take, I'm not prepared to 18        say because I just don't know at this point in time. So I 19        think you should meet and confer and see if you can agree. If 20        you can't, get before Judge Puglisi as soon as possible and try 21        to get some help in defining the contours of that -- of that 22        discovery.

23           If you want to do that, I can not reset this Motion
24        for Summary Judgment right now but give you folks maybe a month 25        to work through that full schedule and then if you want to call

1 Ms. Passamaneck, my law clerk, because she'll be familiar with 2 this, and if you have joint dates where you can agree on, then 3 to file a motion, opposition, reply and hearing date.

4 MR. STREET: Okay.

5 THE COURT: I can try to get you into that puka. In 6 other words I can try to preset that so that you won't be in 7 the queue when you refile the motion. Does that make sense?

8 MR. STREET: Sounds fair enough to me, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay?

10 MS. ING: Your Honor, about how much lead time do you 11 need, you know, how far ahead are you anticipating that we 12 could get a motion set, just for our planning purposes?

13 THE COURT: Well, I mean we're doing pretty well right 14 now. So I mean right now I'm not setting that far out. So if 15 you can try to reach some arrangement of how much time is 16 necessary in the scope of this discovery so that you know when 17 a new motion could be filed or when an opposition could be 18 filed, after having completed the discovery. What I'm saying 19 is we can get those dates set and the hearing date.

20 MS. ING: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Okay? So I don't think it'll be a problem 22 getting those dates as long as I'm in town and don't have 23 something else set at the present time. But in other words, if 24 you say it's going to take 3 months to complete discovery, 25 let's say, through the end of the year, then you could have a

1 date in January to file a motion, you know, late January for 2 the opp. and we could set a hearing date now for a date in 3 February sometime. That's the sort of thing I'm talking about.
4 So that you won't just file the motion later and then you will 5 be in queue and maybe we couldn't set it until March or April.

6 MR. MELCHINGER: I understand that. I appreciate it.
7 I thank the Court for its indulgence there or accommodation. I 8 think we will want to -- I think we can work out or try to work 9 these issues out in front of the magistrate, but we will be 10 obviously seeking some representation Mr. Street is going to, 11 you know, proceed with alacrity on whatever it is that he wants 12 to do.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Street, I'm warning you now, yes, I 14 mean delay is not going to be taken -- looked at kindly going 15 forward. You're going to have to work to get this discovery 16 done in an expedited fashion.

17 MR. STREET: Now, Your Honor, what about this issue
18 though of the franchisee who they can't get the information 19 from who needs to be a party to this case?

20 THE COURT: Well, that's why maybe it makes sense for 21 you folks to contact Judge Puglisi, sit down with him, let him 22 know where things stand so he knows he needs to get that order 23 out one way or another and then you can start to figure out the 24 scope of the discovery at that point in time.

25 MR. MELCHINGER: All right. And as of the filing

1       yesterday there is an affidavit on file which sets out the name
2       of the assignee of the RP/LCPB entity that we gave you before.
3       So there's that entity name that's out there already. And 4       there is, you know, a Rule 45. So, you know, whether or not 5       somebody is a party at this point is not an impediment to 6       proceeding with discovery, you know, I don't think either.

7               THE COURT: Well, so if you're telling Mr. Street 8       here's where you can go to get some discovery, then you need to 9       look at that, Mr. Street, and see if you can --

10              MR. MELCHINGER: And we can --

11              THE COURT: You may not be able to do all your 12       discovery with that information.

13              MR. STREET: Yeah, except until they're parties to the 14       case they're not subject to normal discovery responses.

15              THE COURT: Well, their --

16              MR. STREET: Take depositions I suppose, but --

17              THE COURT: Right. I mean you can do some things and 18       you can start arranging those things, it seems to me. You may 19       not be able to do everything.

20              MR. MELCHINGER: And Marriott is, you know, willing to 21       work and accommodate expeditiously these things.

22              THE COURT: All right. So I'm going to deem the 23       Motion for Summary Judgment withdrawn, I guess, based on my 24       ruling without prejudice, clearly without prejudice. I will 25       give you permission when the time comes to either, one, set a

1 refiling, essentially, which would be incorporating the motion 2 and the corresponding concise statement and so forth, or 3 refiling a motion in its entirety. Okay? If you refile in its 4 entirety I'm going to ignore everything previously. If you ask 5 me to just incorporate the old paperwork, I'll just incorporate 6 the entirety of that old paperwork.

7 MR. MELCHINGER: Understood.

8 THE COURT: Okay? And you'll work toward, see if you
9 can reach some consensus getting together with Judge Puglisi, 10 coming up with a time frame and the appropriate discovery that 11 needs to be done and try to reach a consensus then on when a 12 new motion can be filed, opposition, reply and hearing date.
13 Okay?

14 Obviously giving the Court enough time after the reply 15 to be prepared for the hearing. Okay. You can kind of look at 16 the local rules for that timing as far as the timing between 17 the motion and the opposition, reply and the hearing.

18 THE LAW CLERK: 5 weeks.

19 THE COURT: Ms. Ing, you have something?

20 MS. ING: Oh, no, no, I was just nodding in agreement.

21 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Okay. Is everything clear?

22 Mr. Street, any questions?

23 MR. STREET: No. I -- I think we're fine, Your Honor.

24 MS. ING: I think our concern, Your Honor, is just to 25 make sure that if -- since this is being put off that we do

1 have an agreed plan on going forward --

2 THE COURT: Well, that's why I want you to meet and 3 confer and try to get that plan. If you can't, that's what the 4 magistrate judge is there for.

5 MS. ING: So I think your statements are helpful that, 6 you know, you're expecting that that discovery aimed at the 7 MPSJ defendants be expeditious and without --

8 THE COURT: Right. And that takes some work on your 9 side too. I mean if Mr. Street wants to do some depositions, 10 you need to work to try to get people available and get these 11 depositions done.

12 MR. MELCHINGER: I think we have a path. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Okay.

14 MR. STREET: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.
